Woman Convicted of Fatally Stabbing Another in Rowland Heights

A 20-year-old woman was convicted today of killing her brother's girlfriend, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Lisette Kimberly Moreno pleaded no contest to a felony count of voluntary manslaughter in case KA110434. The defendant also admitted a special allegation that she personally used a deadly and dangerous weapon, scissors, during the commission of the crime.

Sentencing for Moreno is scheduled for Nov. 29 in Department F of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, Pomona Branch. She is expected to be sentenced to 12 years in state prison.

Deputy District Attorney Marie Cox, who prosecuted the case, said on Aug. 16, 2015, Moreno got into an argument with her brother's girlfriend at a Rowland Heights home.

Following the verbal exchange, Moreno allegedly stabbed victim Annette Martinez before fleeing the area, the prosecutor added.

Authorities were called and Martinez was taken to the hospital, where she ultimately succumbed to her injuries.

After the attack, law enforcement located Moreno and arrested her in connection with the fatal stabbing.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.
